

1. The solicitation states that this is a 100% small business aside. Is that correct?

Answer: Yes, this is a 100% small business set-aside acquisition.

2. When are questions to the solicitation due?

Answer: Questions are due Wednesday July 23, 2014 at 3PM EST.

3. I just want to confirm that the size standard for this requirement is 500 employees and not $27.5M except 150 Employees for Information Technology Value Added Resellers.

Answer: The size standard on the SF1449 has been updated to reflect the small business size standard of $27.5M. See Revised RFQ for corrections highlighted in yellow.

4. Please let me know if both software and hardware parts of the contract are aiming to be awarded to a single contractor or several ones

Answer: One contract, inclusive of all Performance Work Statement requirements, will result from this Solicitation.

5. Is this a follow-on requirement? If so, could you please provide the incumbent contract number for this opportunity? If not, is this a new requirement?

Answer: This is a new requirement.

6. Section E.12, Basis for Award, indicates that an award will be made to the lowest price technically acceptable offeror yet Section E.13, Factors to be Evaluated, indicates "1. Technical" and "2. Price". [Potential Offeror] respectfully requests the Government clarify whether the order was reversed. In addition, we respectfully request the Government to consider past performance as an evaluation factor or clarify why it was not cited as an evaluation factor.

Answer: The order of evaluation factors is not reversed; reference is made to Section E.14 of the Solicitation, Evaluation Approach. The Lowest Price Technically Acceptable Source Selection Process is being utilized which includes both Technical and Price factors. Past Performance is not an evaluation factor for this procurement.

7. A number of specific end items such as commercial mobile devices from various manufacturers are listed in Section B.4 Price Schedule, and over time, newer models of these end items will be commercially released to replace the items listed. We respectfully request the Government to clarify how offerors are required to account for such obsolescence within their proposals.

Answer: Potential Offerors are requested to provide pricing only for the medical mobile devices set forth in Schedule B of the Solicitation.

8. We respectfully request the Government to provide specifications for the Dell Items listed in Appendix B.

Answer: All devices specified in Schedule B of the Solicitation are commercial items. Accordingly specifications are readily available through publicly available catalog / Internet sources.
